Dear Prof. Simos,

I would like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to submit a revised version of my research article entitled A Differential Geometric Approach to Time Series Forecasting for consideration by Applied Mathematics and Computation.

I have tried to address the issues raised by the reviewers in the revised manuscript. It will be a pleasure for me to incorporate any other comments.

Please address all correspondence concerning this manuscript to me at babak.emami@gmail.com.

Thank you for your consideration of this manuscript.

Regards,

Babak Emami
